Senior To-Do Checklist!

All Year Long

- Work hard all the way to graduation! Second semester grade can affect scholarship eligibility!
- Stay involved in after-school activities and seek leadership roles in possible!

Fall

- As soon as possible after its Oct. 1st release date, complete and submit your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at fafsa.gov, along with any other financial aid applications your chosen school(s) may require. You should submit your FAFSA by the earliest financial aid deadline of the schools to which you are applying, generally by early February. Refer to the FAFSA "Applying for Aid" section of the site as you go through the application process.
- After you submit the FAFSA you should receive your Student Aid Report (SAR) within 3 days to 3 weeks. This document lists your answers to the questions on your FAFSA and gives you some basic information about your aid eligibility. Quickly make any necessary corrections and submit them to the FAFSA processor.
- If you haven't done so already, register for and take the standardized tests required for college admission. Check with the colleges you are interested in to see what tests they require.
- Apply to the colleges you have chosen. Prepare your applications carefully. Follow the instructions and PAY CLOSE ATTENTION TO THE DEADLINES!
- Well before your college application deadlines, ask your counselor and teachers to submit the required documents (e.g. transcripts, letters of recommendations, etc.) to the colleges to which you're applying.
- Complete any last scholarship applications.

Spring

- Visit colleges that have invited you to enroll
- Review your college acceptances and compare the colleges' financial aid offers
- Contact a school's financial aid office if you have questions about the aid that school has offered you. In fact, getting to know your financial aid staff early is a good idea no matter what. They can tell you about deadlines, other aid for which you might wish to apply, and any important paperwork you might need to submit.
- When you decide which school you want to attend, notify that school of your commitment and submit ~~any required financial deposit. Many schools require this notification and deposit by May 1st.~~

REMEMBER!!!

Register for all tests in advance and be sure to give yourself time to prepare appropriately! If you have difficulty paying a registration fee, ask your school counselor about getting the fee waived.

Things to Consider When Looking for a College!

1. Types of College/University:
 - Liberal Arts: A college with an emphasis on undergraduate study in liberal arts and sciences
 - Examples: Grinnell, Cornell, Coe, Central, Wartburg
 - Four Year (Bachelor's degree): A college that offers students an undergraduate degree in a wide range of academic majors.
 - Examples: Iowa State, University of Iowa, University of Northern Iowa
 - Two Year (Also called a community college or junior college. Associate's Degree): These colleges offer many types of educational programs, including those that lead to degrees/certificates and that serve a job-entry educational experience.
 - Examples: Indian Hills, Iowa Central Community College, Southeastern Community College, Ellsworth, Kirkwood
 - Technical/Vocational (Also called trade school or career college): Secondary education that focuses exclusively on the job training needed for a specific career or skilled trade.
 - Examples: Iowa Lakes community college, Midwest technical institute, Siouxland Pipe welding school, Body wisdom massage therapy, Iowa school of beauty.
2. Size of the college/university: Do you want to be part of a smaller or larger campus? Think about what YOU will need to be successful. Do you work better in a smaller classroom setting, or a larger one?
3. Think about what you want to study and where you can find that major. What types of internships have students done in the past?

What do I ask the College Reps?

- What type of financial aid is offered at your school? Are scholarships, loans, grants, and work-study jobs available?
- Can you explain the admission criteria?
- What majors do you offer?
- What types of student activities are available on campus? (Student government, sports, music, theatre, art, Greek system?)
- How safe is your college?
- How many students graduate in 4 years? What is the job placement like after graduation?
- What is the average class size? What is the faculty to staff ratio? Do your professors teach the classes or will a teaching assistant be doing so?
- What are your facilities like? (Library, gym, book store, student health center, career center, cafeteria, wellness center)
- Is there adequate parking? Is it free or by permit only?
- What type of student orientation do you provide?

When you're ready to look at a specific school!

- Arrange to tour your campus
- Ask to meet with staff/faculty and students who can tell you about your areas of interest
- Arrange to talk with an admission counselor to talk more about tuition, scholarships, life on campus, etc.
- Consider sitting in on some classes
- If you know someone on campus personally, be sure to get their input!
- Don't be afraid to ask questions
- Ask yourself: "Will this school be able to meet my needs academically, socially, economically, and intellectually?"

SCHOLARSHIP ESSAY- START NOW!!

Your essay is your best chance to make the case for why you should receive the scholarship. It helps the scholarship provider learn about you and gives them a much more detailed look at your school and home life.

If you use them right, those few paragraphs can help your application stand out-and could mean the difference between getting a "thanks for applying" email, and an award check! Of course, putting so much emphasis on an essay may make it seem like a daunting task, especially if you do not consider yourself a great writer. By following these next few tips, just about anyone can put together a stand-out essay!

1. Know your audience. It is important to realize that every scholarship provider is looking for a specific student who meets a unique criteria. When you get your application, look closely at the questions, the organization giving the scholarship, and any past recipients you can find.
 - a. Are they emphasizing classroom performance? Looking for someone who's dealt with adversity? Interested in character or community service more than grades? Whatever the answer, your research will put you a step ahead of other applicants who are copying and pasting "one-size-fits-all" answers.
2. Plan for in advance. You can avoid the "one-size-fits-all" essay by getting an early start on each application. Begin your research and planning a week or so before you think you should, and you'll be able to take enough time to turn out something good.
 - a. This will also give you time to craft an outline, which can help your essay stay concise and on target. Think of two or three main points you want to make in response to the essay questions, add some supporting information under each heading, and consider a sentence or two of introduction and conclusion. Before you know it, you'll have built the structure and thesis of your essay, and you won't have to rush to write it!
3. Make it personal and passionate. When you start writing, don't forget that the main purpose of your essay is to convince the reader that you're the student they've been looking for. Answer the questions you've set out in your outline, but make sure every point you make is illustrated with a specific detail that shows you care about the subject.
 - a. Don't just mention that you work with disadvantaged kids; Tell them how your love of soccer got you into coaching those kids. Don't just tell them about your acting awards; Show how the stage helped you conquer your shyness. Putting your unique interests and perspectives on the page will go a very long way toward creating a memorable essay.
4. Find an Editor. Last but not least, make sure you have time to run your essay by a good editor. This could be a parent, teacher, or grammar-nerd friend. Even a well-researched and passionately written essay can be derailed by spelling mistakes or awkwardly-worded sentences. A few minutes of proofreading by a trusted editor can make a huge difference.

Scholarship essays are a big component of your applications and can be a major headache, too. But by starting early, answering the right questions, and describing what makes you unique, you'll be writing standout essays with ease!

ACTIVITIES AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

This sheet is here to help you! By filling this out, it can get you a really good start when you go to fill out applications and write your essays.

Ask your counselor, your colleges, and your religious and civic groups about scholarship opportunities. Your parents' employers and organizations they belong to may also offer scholarships.

You should NEVER pay for scholarship information or application fees.

TIPS FOR GETTING STARTED WITH FINANCIAL AID

Parents and Students:

Now is the time to get started on the financial aid process for the 2023-2024 school year. The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) provides the starting point for state and federal grants, loans and scholarships. Many private scholarships and college scholarships also required the completion of FAFSA before a student is eligible to receive funds. FAFSA filing deadline is being adjusted and will either be available in December or January. The information provided to FAFSA will be based on 2022 tax information.

Here are some tips for getting started.

Begin by visiting fsaid.ed.gov

This site will allow you and your son/daughter to establish a federal student aid ID. Having the ID will enable you to submit and sign documents electronically which speeds up the processing. Students and Parents will each need to establish a FSA ID as you will both be providing information on the FAFSA form.

When you log on to the site, you will need to enter your demographic information along with your social security number. The site will direct you through establishing a user name, password and several security questions. Please note: It is critical that you record your answers on piece of paper and file the information with other important documents. Trying to recall this information each time you update your FAFSA can be very difficult. Typically, you will only visit this site 1 time per year throughout your college education so a record of security passwords, questions, and secure codes is extremely important.

When answering security questions, avoid answers that require spaces or punctuation. For example, " St. Mary's Church", should be entered as stmaryschurch

FSAID will also request an email account to send a "secure" code for finishing the ID process. We encourage you to use an email account you check frequently because other information about your award will also come to this account.

STUDENTS: Please do not use your school established email account as those will be de-activated upon graduation. Students will not be able to access financial aid information once those accounts are de-activated and you will need to access this information following graduation and throughout your college education.

Establishing a FSA ID can be done at any time between now and filing your FAFSA and will probably take you about 20-30 minutes.

Once FSA ID is complete, you may visit fafsa.ed.gov

This site will again have you enter demographic information and allow you to enter financial information used to establish an estimated family contribution (EFC). This site is linked to the IRS so if your tax information is filed electronically; it can be uploaded directly in the FAFSA report.

FSAID help is available. If you have questions, please contact Mrs. Chapuis at 319-293-3183, ext: 4009

FAFSA help is also available by contacting Sonya Davis at the Educational Opportunity Center on IHCC campus. Even if you are not attending IHCC, she can assist with the financial aid process.

The Educational Opportunity Center and Iowa State Extension Service will be hosting a FAFSA Completion Night at Van Buren County CSD in October. Watch Facebook posts the first of October learn about specific times.

FEDERAL STUDENT AID ID

What is an FSA ID?

The FSA ID - a username and password - has replaced the Federal Student Aid PIN.

How is the FSA ID used?

The FSA ID is used to log in to certain U.S. Department of Education websites. Your FSA ID confirms your identity when you access your financial aid information and electronically sign Federal Student Aid documents.

How do I get an FSA ID?

You can create an FSA ID here: <https://fsaid.ed.gov>

Steps to Create an FSA ID

1. When logging into this website above, click the tab to create an FSA ID.
2. Create a username and password, and enter your e-mail address.
3. Enter your name, date of birth, Social Security number, contact information, and challenge questions and answers.
4. If you have a Federal Student Aid PIN, you will be able to enter it and link it to your FSA ID. You can still create an FSA ID if you have forgotten or do not have a PIN.
5. Review your information, and read and accept the terms and conditions.
6. Confirm your e-mail address using the secure code, which will be sent to the e-mail address you entered when you created your FSA ID. Once you verify your e-mail address, you can use it instead of your username to log in to the websites.

You can use your FSA ID to sign a FAFSA right away. Once the Social Security Administration verifies your information in one to three days, or if you have linked your PIN to your FSA ID, you will be able to use your FSA ID to access the websites listed above. For help, visit StudentAid.gov/fsaid

HERE'S WHAT YOU'LL NEED COMPLETING 2024-2025 FAFSA

Information is subject to change as new information becomes available from the U.S. Department of Education. Please call the Educational Opportunity Center at 641-683-5315 for assistance completing your FAFSA. Use the checklists below to help you complete the (FAFSA) Free Application for Federal Student Aid.

Helpful Hints

FSA ID

The FSA ID is a username and password that will confirm your identity when accessing your financial aid information. If you are a dependent student, you and your parents will need to create a FSA ID username and password to electronically sign the FAFSA. Create your FSA ID at www.studentaid.gov/fsa-id/create-account/. Please write down the username and password that you create and bring it to your appointment.

WHEN DO I FILE?

The 2024-2025 FAFSA form is available December 2023. An exact date is yet to be determined. Each college has a priority deadline for completing the FAFSA. You should check with each college and file the FAFSA as soon as possible.

QUESTIONS? Please call the Educational Opportunity Center at 641-683-5315.

STUDENTS:

- Social Security Number and Name that is printed on the social security card, date of birth.
- Driver's license number.
- Permanent Resident Card and Alien registration number, if not a U.S. citizen.
- 2022 federal and state tax returns (1040).
- W-2 forms and other records of income earned in 2022.
- Records of any untaxed income received in 2022 (veterans benefits, etc.)
- 2022 business and investment farm records (net worth).
- As of today, what is the balance of your checking, savings?
- As of today, what is the value (net worth) of investments? Includes stocks, bonds, mutual funds, rental properties, CD's, etc. (Does not include the home you live in or vehicles)
- As of today, are you married? If married, what is the date of marriage? If divorced or separated, what is the date of divorce or separation?
- Amount of child support paid and/or received in 2022.
- A federal student aid identification (FSA ID) username and password. (set up at www.studentaid.gov/fsa-id/create-account/)
- If an independent student is married and filed taxes separately, their spouse must create a FSA ID and provide consent for the student to be eligible for aid.

PARENTS:

- Social Security Numbers and Name that is printed on the social security card and dates of birth.
- 2022 federal and state tax returns (1040).
- W-2 forms and other records of income earned in 2022.
- Records of any untaxed income received in 2022 (veterans benefits, etc.)
- 2022 business and investment farm records (net worth).
- As of today, are you married or remarried? If married, what is the date of marriage? If divorced or separated, what is the date of divorce or separation?
- As of today, what is the balance of your checking, savings?
- As of today, what is the value (net worth) of your investments? Includes stocks, bonds, mutual funds, rental properties, CD's, etc. (Does not include the home you live in or vehicles)
- Amount of child support paid and/or received in 2022.
- A federal student aid identification (FSA ID) username and password. Both parents (if married or remarried) set up at www.studentaid.gov/fsa-id/create-account/

IRS DATA RETRIEVAL:

- The IRS Data Retrieval tool within the FAFSA can be used to automatically pull most of your 2022 tax information into your FAFSA application in most cases. You will still need copies of your 2022 taxes and W-2 forms on hand for reference.

FAFSA FILING TIPS & HELPFUL HINTS

ARE YOU A DEPENDENT OR INDEPENDENT STUDENT?

(Not living with parents or not being claimed by them on tax forms does not make you an independent student on the FAFSA)

If you answer "yes" to any of these questions you are an independent student on the FAFSA.

If you answer "no" to all of these questions you are a dependent student and will be required to use your parent(s) information on the FAFSA.

- Were you born before January 1, 2001?
- As of today, are you married? (Answer "Yes" if you are separated but not divorced)
- At the beginning of the 2024-25 school year, will you be working on a graduate program?
- Are you currently serving on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces for purposes other than training or are you a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces?
- Do you have children or dependents who will receive more than half of their support from you between July 1, 2024 and June 30, 2025?
- At any time since you turned 13, were both your parents deceased, were you in foster care or were you a dependent or ward of the court?
- As determined by a court in your state of legal residence, are you or were you an emancipated minor or in a legal guardianship?
- At any time on or after July 1, 2023, were you homeless or at risk of being homeless?
- Other unusual circumstances that prevent you from contacting your parents or contacting your parents would pose a risk to you.

WHO IS CONSIDERED A PARENT ON THE FAFSA?

- If your parents are married to each other, then report information for both parents on the FAFSA.
- If your parent was never married and does not live with your other legal parent, or if your parent is widowed, answer questions about that parent.
- If your parents are divorced or separated, answer questions about the parent you lived with more in the last 12 months or if you did not live with one parent more than the other, the parent that provided the most financial support during the last 12 months. If this parent is remarried as of today, answer the questions about that parent and your stepparent. If both biological parents provide equal support, use the parental data of the parent that earned more in 2022.
- If your widowed parent is remarried as of today, answer the questions about that parent and your stepparent.
- If your legal parents are not married to each other and live together, select "Unmarried and both parents living together" on FAFSA and provide information about both of them regardless of their gender.

FARMS/BUSINESS ON FAFSA

- In past years, the value of a family farm or small business with less than 100 employees was not reported. Beginning with the 2024-25 FAFSA, the net worth of each will be reported on the FAFSA. Refer to your personal records or contact your accountant.
